

Internship Opportunity for undergraduate and postgraduate students:

If you are currently enrolled in university or professional study institution, and have a strong will to contribute to society,
this is for you!

Summer internship opportunity with ICCo and ICCSPL organizations, who are working to achieve twin core principles of 'Securing Sustainable Livelihoods' & 'Justice and Dignity for All'.

About Us:

ICCo has made an impact by bringing together civil society partners, funders, corporates and the government agencies to make concerted efforts for economic and social empowerment of the disadvantaged communities. In its ongoing efforts to restoring lives by resurrecting livelihoods of the poor, especially women ICCo is seeking to develop a strategic plan in select geographic areas.

Scope of work:

- Interns will be based in Jharkhand, Odisha, and Bihar for 2-3 months
- Both primary and secondary research for developing resource directory covering various departments of the government with the name and designation of the department heads/ CEO as applicable,
- Curation of the different medium and large-scale industries in private and public sector with the compilation of their key CSR contacts;
- Documentation of various government's developmental schemes sponsored sustainable livelihoods, entrepreneurship development, water and natural resources management and eradication of child labour in any form with special reference to partnership opportunities for ICCo.

Stipend and perks:

- A monthly stipend of ₹5000 - ₹10,000 will be provided based on qualification, experience and level of engagement.
- Flexible working hours
- Certificate on Completion

Please send your application to: ssrivastava@iccspl.com with a cc to ptiwari@iccspl.com by 15 June, 2022.

Corporate Office:

A-45, Ground Floor, Sector 2, Noida, Uttar Pradesh- 201301

Regional Office:

Second Floor, above Bandhan Bank B.N Saikia Road, Beltola Survey Guwahati, Assam-781028